

Rule 24 – Notable Changes

- This is a new Rule.
- New term “advice giver” used to refer to the individual who may give or be asked for advice.
- So long as there is no individual component in a team competition, a Local Rule can allow teammates in the same group to give each other advice.

Rule 24 – Key Concepts

24.1 Overview of Team Competitions

- Group of individuals or sides competing against other teams.

24.2 Terms of Team Competition

- How to score a team competition decided by Committee.

24.3 Team Captain

- A team captain may be named to make decisions.

24.4 Advice Allowed in Team Competitions

- Teams may select an advice giver, who may or may not be a player.
- If a player, may not give advice while playing.
- Advice givers still subject to restrictions in 10.2b(2) (and (4) by clarification).
- Teammates may not give each other advice, unless actually partners.